

AGS Redefining the Historic Cemetery Workshop 2010
Thursday June 24, 2010

1:00 PM – 3:30 PM
Leader – John Bry

What happened to the American Historic Cemetery? Why do so many active and non-active non-profit and municipal owned cemeteries struggle? Join Historic Preservationist John Bry who has developed the first comprehensive five point model for designed to help organizations and municipalities tackle their historic cemetery sustainability issues, and re-connect the property to the larger community it serves. Fundraising, partnerships, and Master Planning issues are just part of the topics participants will discuss in this informative session with tips and strategies you can take home and apply to long-term preservation of any historic cemetery.
